Quassel IRC - Bug #1217

Segfault while moving mouse

Description

I was moving my mouse around the all chats pane, and quassel segfaulted. It's possible that it was trying to display a tooltip.

This might have just been cosmic rays flipping a bit since it isn't reliably reproduceable (yet); I'm just filing this bug in case the crash log proves useful.

This does look like a fluke, from looking at the backtrace. Please let me know if it happens again.
