| I use Quassel (0.5.2 monolithic) to connect to my Bouncer (psybnc) which runs fine except users that joined the channel before i was connected to the BNC don't show up in the nick list. Rejoining the channel solves the problem. This doesn't happen with mIRC. |                |                        |            |
